Safety Guide

Crime Prevention is one of the most important tools in fighting crime. Preventing crime is the whole community's responsibility, not just the police.

We encourage you to take an active role in making your community safe and minimizing your chances of becoming a victim.

BE A WISE CONSUMER

Don't be conned by a "Con Artist":

- Ask questions and listen carefully.
- Refuse to be pressured.
- Ask for things in writing.
- Read and understand any contract before you sign it.
- Check references and ask for names of past customers.
- Keep good records.

Warning signs:

- Demand immediate action ("Today Only" or "Last Chance").
- Offer to send someone to pick up payment or ask you to send it by overnight mail.
- Unwilling to provide written information.
- Tells you the deal is a secret and that you must not tell anyone.
- If something sounds too good to be true, it probably is.

Safety Tips:

- When in doubt about a product or business, contact the Better Business Bureau.
- Be suspicious of anyone going door to door to solicit work.
- Never do business with a person who approaches you on the street.
- Never allow someone you do not know to enter in your home.
- Do not rely on the word of someone you do not know.
- Do not pay for work up front.
- Never give someone a blank check or let them help you fill it out.
- Do not enter contests, accept gifts, or prizes unless you understand your obligation.
- Do not allow your decision to be influenced by promise of quick financial reward.
- Make sure your mailbox is secure and promptly remove mail.

PREVENT IDENTITY THEFT

- Review your credit reports with the three major credit bureaus annually.
- Know who you are giving your personal information to and how it will be used.
- Minimize the amount of personal information you carry (i.e.: extra credit cards, social security card and checkbook)
- Do not place outgoing mail in your mailbox, use a secure mailbox.
- Always shred financial documents, receipts, or pre-approved credit offers before throwing them away.
- Reduce the amount of personal information in circulation by removing your name from the marketing lists of the three major credit reporting agencies.
- Never write down your passwords or PIN.
- Protect your social security number. Only release it when necessary.
- Secure personal information in your home so that it's not readily accessible to others.
- Never leave personal or financial information in your vehicle
- Use passwords to protect your cellular, utility, credit card and bank accounts.
- Do not give out your personal information through emails or online forms unless you confirm that you are dealing with a legitimately secure site.
